

B.Sc. Honours Examination 2020(Under CBCS Pattern)

Semester-IV

Subject: GEOGRAPHY

Paper:C9T

Economic Geography

Full Marks-30(Theory)

Answer any three questions from the following.

(Questions are of equal value)

- 1.Critically discuss the Von Thunen's model and its presentday relevance.
- 2.Analyse the localization of cotton textile industry in western India and the present problems faced by the industry.
- 3.Define plantation farming. Discuss the salient features of plantation farming mainly tea in India.
- 4.Differentiate between subsistence and commercial agriculture.
- 5.What are the physical and socio-economic factors responsible for the growth of open sea fisheries in the World?
- 6.Critically state the factors for the growth of iron and steel industry in India under the public sector.
- 7.Give an account of Weber's theory of industrial location.
- 8.Trace the economic importance of transport in regional development. Write down the features and function of GATT.
- 9.How does mining influence environmental quality?
- 10.Discuss the characteristics and distribution of mixed farming in Europe.

N.B. :-Students are advised to use A-4 size Paper for Answer Scripts by mentioning on the top of the Answer Scripts as follows: Name of the Semester, Roll, No, Registration with Year, Subjects and Paper.

Send the Answer Scripts in PDF or WORD file by naming Paper and Semester in the following Email ID: sulogna.26@gmail.com