

B.A. General in Political Science

Programme Specific Outcomes

- 1 To demonstrate theoretical and practical knowledge on political science and international relations and to state views and positions with advanced oral and written skills.
- 2 Assess how global, national and regional developments affect society.
- 3 To analyze national and global events from various social science perspectives.
- 4 Develop knowledge of theories, concepts, and research methods in humanities and social sciences.
- 5 To (be able to) understand and follow the changes in political behaviours, opinions and structures.