

B.A. Honours in Sociology

Programme Specific Outcomes

- 1 Sociology Students will learn about the social causes and consequences of common human experiences and issues. This knowledge can be used across multiple sectors, from politics to social welfare.
- 2 Sociology can enable students to better understanding of social structure that shape lives. So students will be able to deal with society in a better way.
- 3 Studying Sociology will enhance the ability to be an active and informed citizen.
- 4 Sociology develop the critical thinking and better understanding ability.
- 5 Better adaptability to function on society, help to make healthy relation.
- 6 Intense understanding on social issues and ability to cope the situation.
- 7 Outstretched subject matter gives multiple idea that helps student to solve social problem in a easy way.
- 8 Studying sociology students are able to know the changes, social, political, economical and cultural development of society.
- 9 Student will be skilled with theoretical as well as practical knowledge to research on social phenomena.