

M.A. in English

Programme Specific Outcome

Upon successful completion of the Postgraduate Programme in English, students are expected to be able to-

1	Widen the horizons of intellectual and imaginative potential through a thorough acquaintance with British Literature, American Literature, Indian English Literature and emerging New Literatures in English as well as Dalit Literature.
2	Identify the range and variety of approaches to literary study, including critical theory, the major theoretical schools and apply those approaches to a variety of texts.
3	Account for the role of context(s) in the production, reception, and transmission of literary and cultural texts (across periods, histories, geographic or national spaces, and cultural differences) and address the sociological issues of class, gender, race etc in relation to literary texts
4	Understand how researches can be carried out through first-hand experiences of Field Survey and support literary research with peer-reviewed academic resources provided by the library, and include both in- and end-text citation of those sources that adheres to industry-accepted documentation styles.
5	Manage sophisticated writing and research projects, including planning, documenting, completing, and assessing work on time and within the constraints of the project.
6	Acquire values needed for individual development and social transformation in way of studying literature as an ennobling experience and developing quality of thinking and imagination which is a step forward to emerge as a better human being.